Adding Voice to Your Feature Article

Directions: Choose four out of the seven ways to add voice to your feature article. Write the text that you'll add in the space provided below; number each addition. On your draft, write the corresponding number so you will know where you want to put this addition.

Questioning – Pose questions of your own or question your readers.
Asides – Make comments to the readers.
Thoughtshots – Provide your inner thoughts regarding your topic.
Jargon – Specialized vocabulary or slang for the topic.
Description – Use imagery to create a word picture of something you are presenting in the article.
Purposeful sentence fragments – Phrases that are connected to full sentences.
Dialogue or anecdotes – Very short narratives or stories that relate to the topic.
